

I am strongly opposed to this action, and feel that the public's access to different points of view will be limited.